

New Faces

Lynne Crofts comes to us from Charlottesville, Virginia as our new principal. After receiving her Masters in Counseling from West Virginia University and an Education Specialist degree from the University of Virginia, she worked as an administrator in Fluvanna, Louisa, and King William Counties for 10 years. She enjoys all sports, reading, playing handbells, and swing dancing.

Katrina Richardson will be an additional Assistant Principal at LGES. Katrina has taught in the business department at Orange High School for the past 8 years. She has a Masters degree from George Mason University and is in the process of completing her endorsement in Administration and Supervision from the University of Virginia. Katrina believes that education is the key to every child's success. As an administrator her goals are to help every child believe in their abilities and to reach their goals. Katrina is married and has 2 daughters, Alexis and Taylor.

Jennie Adami is in her 2nd year as an Instructional Assistant with Orange County. She received her Bachelor's degree from Mercy College in New York. Prior to moving to Virginia she taught pre-school in Minnesota.

James Johnson joins us as our new custodian working the evening shift. He retired after working 25 years in his previous job. He has lived most of his life in Orange County. James says that it's so good to come to work and see so many smiles and waving of hands from our children! Thank you!

Jen Michael recently graduated from Radford University with a Masters in Psychology and an Education Specialist degree in School Psychology. She is very excited to be in Orange County and looks forward to working with all the students, teachers, and parents this year.

Jan Renaud is one of our new Instructional Assistants and has been employed in Orange County for 7 years as an LGES bus driver. She has 2 daughters that currently attend LGES!

Nita Roush joins us as our new bookkeeper after working 23 years as a federal secretary bookkeeper. She has been married for 35 years and has a 20 year old son. She loves LGES!

Angela Tucker is serving her first year as attendance/enrollment secretary after spending the last seven years in the medical field. She is excited about being a new addition and is looking forward to meeting all the smiley faces!

WE APPRECIATE!!

We are grateful for everyone working as a team as our school continues to grow. Through all of our efforts we will excel in the areas of safety and instruction. We believe in excellence and with your help, will provide our students with every opportunity to grow and learn. We appreciate you!

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM UNDERWAY!

There are many volunteer opportunities available for parents, grandparents, and other family and community members to participate in school activities. We welcome your help and appreciate your time and efforts on the behalf of our children. Project Excel is another volunteer program designed for helping our student learn through tutoring. Please contact the school for more information!
